AMMEGA is pleased to announce that Kyoyul “Kyo” Oh joined the Power Transmission & Fluid Power Products business on January 25, 2021, as Vice President/General Manager reporting to Tom Doring, President AMMEGA Americas.

Kyoyul (Kyo) Oh

In his new role, Kyo will be part of the Americas Executive Leadership Team and will lead the Power Transmission & Fluid Power business along with his senior and local management team of specialists.

Kyo has over twenty years of global automotive and industrial manufacturing experience across sales & marketing, engineering, research & development, business development & commercialization, operational start-up, expatriate assignment, and management P&L responsibility.

Stated by Tom Doring, “Kyo is a veteran and true expert in the areas of Power Transmission and Fluid Power globally and regionally. We are excited to see Kyo continue our successful journey in growing with our distributor partners. We are equally excited about our next phase of growth around innovation, new product development and customer specific solutions.”

Prior to joining our Power Transmission and Fluid Power business, Kyo spent 20 years with the Gates Corporation, culminating with his position as Senior Vice President Commercial Development. After Gates, he spent one year at Stant Corporation as an Executive Vice President.

Kyo has a Bachelor of Science and Master of Science in Mechanical Engineering from Worcester Polytechnic Institute, and a Ph.D. in Engineering Science and Mechanics from Virginia Tech.

Kyo has demonstrated his ability to deliver customer focused, technology driving and innovating, profitable business solutions, operational excellence, and cross-cultural global personnel management. Kyo has also been instrumental in successful sales and transactions with Private Equity firms.

Tom Tesoro

Kyo and Tom Tesoro, Vice President of Commercial Relations will focus on leading the Megadyne and Jason businesses to the next level.
